

LA PUERTA DE LOS NIÑOS

Carni-Fall is here! On Friday, November 9th, from 6 p.m. until everyone decides to go home, La Puerta will be hosting a night of crafts, games, and delicious food and drink pairings. Wristbands will be available to purchase starting Monday, November 5th. Look for your hardworking board members selling tickets in the front hall. Adults are $20 and children are $5. Anyone born in a year ending with '18 is FREE, so if you have an infant or a venerable Auntie, there is no charge for them.

Here's what you can look forward to that night:

Sweet Peas will be tatting up your children while they're munching on fruit kabobs and veggie cups and you're sipping sangria.

Sprouts will be taking polaroids of you and your family, make them as silly as you want! They will have antipasto skewers and white wine available.

In the Pumpkin Eater classroom, your children will be making frames for the polaroids you just took and decorating them for your refrigerator at home. Spinach squares and sparkling cranberry punch will be served.

The Panda Bears will be providing materials for fall bracelets. Don't be shy, you should make one for yourself too! You'll be getting your grub on with some chicken taco pinwheels, black bean chip cups, and beer.

Be ready to sing your hearts out because the Seahorses are hosting karaoke night! Delicious cranberry meatball sliders and apple pie punch will be available to eat as you hear Let It Go for the 100th time 😊

Peacocks will have a cake walk and games in their neck of the woods. We will have an assortment of different desserts available so whether you love rice krispy treats or you're strictly a chocolate lover, there will be something for everyone. Red wine and hot chocolate will be available here.

Finally, the Roadrunner team will be playing candy corn bingo and making fall trees. They will be serving pesto tortellini skewers and lemonade will be how you end your night, but make your rounds as you please.

→ We make every effort to make sure that there are plenty of treats for those of you who have allergies or who avoid certain foods. If you have input, questions, or would like to volunteer to bring something for those on a restricted diet, pop into the office. ←
